PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On July 17, 2008, at approximately 1355 Hours, Cesar PEREZ-Real (Defendant) applied for admission to the United States at the Otay Mesa Port of Entry via the pedestrian primary lanes. Defendant claimed United States citizenship to a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer, presented a United States Passport bearing the name Evaristo Daniel Vigil Ramirez and stated he was going to San Diego, California. The CBP Officer noticed the photo on the United States Passport did not resemble Defendant and suspected Defendant was making a documented false claim to United States citizenship. The CBP Officer subsequently referred Defendant to secondary for further inspection.

In secondary, a CBP Officer queried Defendant's fingerprints through the Integrated Automated Fingerprint Identification System (IAFIS) and Automated Biometric Identification System (IDENT). IAFIS and IDENT identified Defendant as a citizen of Mexico and a previously removed alien.

Queries through the Immigration Central Index System (CIS) and the Deportable Alien Control System (DACS) reveal Defendant was ordered deported by an Immigration Judge on or about September 7, 1995 and was physically removed from the United States on or about July 14, 2008. Immigration records indicate Defendant has neither applied for nor received permission from the United States Attorney General or the Secretary of Homeland Security to legally reenter the United States.

During a videotaped interview, Defendant was advised of his Miranda rights and elected to answer questions without the benefit of an attorney present. Defendant stated that he is a citizen of Mexico by birth in Tijuana, Baja California, Mexico. Defendant stated he was going to Fresno, California to be with his family. Defendant admitted that he had presented a United States passport belonging to another person.
